VOL. XXV SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3, 1937 Number 93

LAST DANCE OF QUARTER FIRST OF SPRING SEASON

Slip Bohnett Band To Make First Campus Appearance

It's the last student body dance of the quarter, but it's the first spring dance of the year, that's the "March Winds and April Showers" dance to be held next Saturday night in the men's gym.

Reports trickling into the Daily office relate that the college men and co-eds are already picking the moth balls out of last year's spring clothes in readiness for the affair.

PUNCH SERVED

Frances Cuenin, social affairs chairman, reveals that "positively whole tubs of fruit punch will be given away for free" to the dancers.

Making their first appearance on a State dance floor will be the orchestra of "Slip" Bohnett. Bohnett's orchestra comes here with a fancy reputation, and the social affairs committee is paying a goodly sum for the band. Besides a variety of sweet and swing music, the orchestra features a number of vocalists, including sax-

SKD To Torture Pledges Friday

Journalism Society To Hold Bi-Annual Ceremony

Sigma Kappa Delta, honorary journalism society, will initiate new members into its ranks when the society holds its bi-annual initiation ceremony this Friday night.

New members, taken into the society because of outstanding journalistic ability, are asked to meet Thursday noon at 12:45 in the Publications office, when President Charles Leong will give final instruction, preliminary to the ceremony.

Neophytes include Maxine Walther, Wilbur Korsmeier, Jeanne Morehead, Marian Schumann, Virginia Bates, Caroline Walsh, Bill Rodrick, and Jack Marsh.

Sigma Delta Pi Meeting Tonight

All those interested in the Spanish language are invited to attend a meeting of the Spanish honor society, Sigma Delta Pi, at the home of Ralph Martin, 720 Morse avenue, tonight at 7:45.

Those who have no transportation should see Miss Meta Goldsmith or Angela Hernandez.

CALENDAR

TODAY:
12 Noon: Chapel Quarter-Hour, Little Theater.
8:20 p.m.: A Capella Choir Concert, Morris Dailey.

TOMORROW:
12:45: Sigma Kappa Delta Pledges meet. Pub. office.

Song Contest To Conclude Friday

Best Number To Be Printed In Phi Mu Alpha Pamphlet

Five Dollar Prize

Fight on for dear old State! Football season is passed but you can still write on for dear old State. That is, until Friday.

On that day the song contest, sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha, honorary music fraternity, comes to an end. The purpose of the affair is to obtain a fight song for San Jose State college.

STUDENTS ELIGIBLE

All State students are eligible to compete, but the tune must be original. It is hoped by the sponsors to obtain a song in this manner which will be unique to the college.

The winning song will be printed in a pamphlet by Phi Mu Alpha, along with the school hymn and all the yells. This will be distributed among the student body free of charge.

JUDGES

Economics Group Taking First Trip

Taking their first field trip, members of the Home Economics club will go to Hale Brothers Saturday morning at 9 a.m. to hear Mr. Thomson, buyer for ladies' wear, speak on spring fashions. Spring apparel from Hale Brothers' stock will illustrate Mr. Thomson's talk.

The first twenty-five students to sign up will make the trip. All those in the Home Economics department are eligible.

UNCLE JIMMY DE VOSS CITES LONG COURTSHIP BEST COLLEGE MARRIAGE BENEFITS

So you want to get married. Well, according to Dr. James DeVoss, psychology head and dean of upper division, being married in college has certain advantages. Firstly, marriage is a steady influence on students, believes Dr. DeVoss.

IMPORTANT DECISION

Then, a student who chooses a mate while in college has made one of the two most important decisions of his life (the other is deciding on a job), and as a result, is a better adjusted individual.

Also, college is an ideal eugenic situation for bringing together people for mates who should be

First Broadcast Claimed Success

SPORTS SHOW FEATURES BETTENCOURT'S BAND, EVELYN PIERI

By WILBUR KORSMEIER

An overflow crowd of Spartan students and the much-heralded Sports Parade made history last night and went on the air over KQW as the first broadcast from the San Jose State college campus. An appreciative, but unruly audience taxed the capacity of Morris Dailey auditorium when master of ceremonies Jack Gruber presented outstanding college talent before the microphone.

With Harold Randle handling the broadcast through the local station, the program went over the ether waves from 9:15 to 9:45 as the first of a series of broadcasts planned from Washington Square.

BOXING TROPHY

The feature of the broadcast was the presentation of the PAA

Song Writers To Receive Awards

Winning Compositions Are To Be Used During Diamond Jubilee

Winning contestants in the San Jose State annual music composition contest, open to all students, will receive $75.00 in prize money and the honor of having their compositions used for the Diamond Jubilee program and also for a radio broadcast.

The manuscripts may be compositions of any type, such as vocal solos, quartet parts, both vocal and instrumental, or any original arrangement, states Mr. George Matthews, music instructor.

The closing date of the contest is April 15. The judges and rules, not yet decided, will be announced by the end of the week, Mr. Matthews announced.

Bruce Wilbur Featured Soloist For The Annual College Choir Concert

Bach's Motet To Be Highlighted By Sixty Golden Voices; Erlendson Directs Performance Tonight

Bruce Wilbur, popular campus singer, will be the featured soloist on the San Jose State college A Capella Choir concert tonight in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

The number which will headline the second appearance of Miss Wilbur as soloist on an A Capella Choir concert is the well-known composition, "Beautiful Savior" by Christiansen.

Comedy Free To State Students

'Cassilis Engagement' To Be Given In Little Theater

Conflict that occurs when a cockney night-club singer falls in love with a noble and finds herself out of her class is the theme of St. John Hankin's "Cassilis Engagement", which will be presented by the Dramatics department March 10, 11, and 12 in the Little Theater.

Written in the suave and polished British manner, this comedy will be directed by Mr. Hugh Gillis and will feature Grace McBurney, Bill Gilson, Jean Holloway, Virginia Range, Wanda

Pastor To Speak At Quarter Hour

MUSIC ON PROGRAM

Dr. A. H. Saunders, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will speak for five minutes at the regular mid-week Chapel Quarter-hour in the Little Theater this noon from 12 to 12:15. Musical selections will complete the fifteen-minute program.

The meeting is open to all faculty members and students. No active participation on their part is required, the period being set apart for meditation and relaxation.

Sponsored by the YWCA, the first month of the quarter and by the YMCA the second month, the Kappa Phi club has had charge of the meeting during this last month.

Griffin, Sequoia Coach, To Speak At Dinner For P.E. Majors

Frank Griffin, coach at Sequoia high school in Redwood City, will be the chief speaker at the Physical Education Major's dinner to be held tonight at 6:30 in the Home Economics building.

Luke Argilla, president of the P. E. Majors, is in charge of the program which will include songs by Burt Watson, Mike Sweezy, and Creighton Thorup.

Dudley S. DeGroot, athletic director at San Jose, will give a talk on the State P. E. convention to be held in Fresno. Coach DeGroot is the president of the state organization and Mrs. Maud Knapp of the women's physical education department is the secretary.

The dinner is for men P. E. Majors only.

TWO CHOIRS

"This composition is one of the most difficult arrangements ever written for a chorus of voices. There are two choirs and within each all the parts are written in strict contrapuntal style," declared Mr. William Erlendson.

According to Mr. Erlendson, this motet is the most elaborate of the works of Bach and makes very taxing demands upon the voices of the choir.

BASS GROUP

The choir has showed itself a very unusual one in the fact that it has an entire second bass group which can all sing "low C" and of whom four can sing "low A and G".

To create the proper atmosphere of the songs, Peter Min-

130 Reservations Made To Session

Few Camping Accommodations Remain On Grounds

One hundred and thirty reservations for the Death Valley session of the West Coast School of Nature Study held March 21 to 27, have been received from all parts of California, Dr. P. Victor Peterson, natural science department head, announced today.

How much longer registration will be open is not definitely known but a few accommodations remain at both Furnace Creek Ranch where the school will be headquartered, and at the Government camp grounds, according to Dr. Peterson.

Rates at the ranch range from $45 for private room to $31 for non-bath accommodations. Those staying at the government camp may join the school by paying the $12 tuition fee.

According to Dr. Peterson, transportation is still needed, and anyone driving to Death Valley wishing to carry additional passengers, is asked to communicate with him in Room S100.

German Honor Club To Meet Next Wednesday

Originally scheduled for this evening, a meeting of Der Deutsche Verein, German honor society, will be held a week from tonight at the home of Mr. L. C. Newby, advisor of the group, according to Raymond Wallace, the club president.

Elections for next quarter's officers will be held at that time and several new members will give initiation speeches.

PRESIDENT VS. COURT

At Harvard University there is said to be a minority supporting the president. As for the press, among those who supported him in his campaign, there is a two-thirds majority opposing him.

LABOR WITH ROOSEVELT

To the charge that the President is proposing to pack the court, those in favor say, "When wasn't the Court packed? and What of it?" Last week Dr. Poytress pointed out that Presidents throughout the history of the United States have, at different times, sought to pack the Courts.

JUDICIARY

To those opposing the President

It is open to question whether the Supreme Court has the power to declare laws unconstitutional. Dr. Poytress intimated. The extreme left factions have proposed that the Supreme Court be done away with entirely, while others would curb its power. The liberals are suggesting that Congress be given the right to pass laws over the court. President Roosevelt, as has been said before, is not in favor of this. According to Dr. Poytress, the President sees a possibility of bargaining with the liberals.

CONSERVATIVES

Some who are with the president in this belief think an amendment to the constitution is required. Dr. Poytress stated that he doubted if an amendment would go through. He further declared that the press is deliberately trying to fool the public by disguising the motives.

Philatelists Attention: All students and faculty interested in stamp collecting meet in Room 11, 12:30 today, Wednesday.

Another State grad is that well known "stooge" for George Burns and Gracie Allen, Milton Watson, known more affectionately to Gracie as "Milty Wilty". Although he is not at present with the latter program, he was chief stooge for over a year. While in his senior year at San Jose, Watson was prominent in school dramatics and took the lead in many productions. He was a music major, and captain of the basketball team.

A third radio personality to tread the paths of Washington Square was Helen Musselman, now participating in the famous serial created by Carleton E. Morse, "One Man's Family", Miss Musselman is taking the part of Ann Waite, next door neighbor to the Barbour family. At San Jose she was quite prominent in school dramatics.

We laughed too, on account of the gun was pointed at Gentleman Ben Melzer. Too bad the kid wasted his vocal bullet, though.

STRAY STROLLINGS: . . . the smoke of tar around a neighborhood street reminds us of the good old days . . . when we speakeed up to construction jobs where tarring was being done . . . and snitched loose bits from the barrels and chewed and strangled our molars . . . and got a tremendous kick out of the tenacious process . . .

And get caught by the good-natured workmen who'll pretend to glare at us . . . and then give us a penny and tell us to scam . . . maybe the tar-snitching was just a means to an end . . .

One of our friends went back to the hometown on the coast the other day. He was short of cash but full of parental gratitude (after he got the cash). After the big college stuff, he boxing trophy from Coach DeWitt Portal to Captain Bob Harris, who in turn, handed it over to Paul Becker. The student prexy responded in behalf of the Associated Students. The presentation followed a sports review presented by Bob Robb, "campus tattler", known for his Monday evening broadcasts.

Following the music of Frank Bettencourt and his orchestra, Jerry Girdner led the students in a yell; Burt Watson sang "Trust in Me"; and Harvey Brooks, of the flying feet, entertained with a tap dance. After the sports review, Miss Lucile Conolley, vocalist, was presented to the audience for the first time. She was accorded a loud welcome.

Creighton Thorup, a distinct hit in the Spartan Revue, concluded the air program singing and playing his own accompaniment.

BETTENCOURT SWINGS

Bettencourt's swingsters had the crowd stamping their feet for more, when emcee Gruber said goodnight.

The last number, a special arrangement of "King Porter's Stomp", almost made swing-minded students start to dance in the aisles and forget the music of Benny Goodman. This hot number featured drummer Nickey Dalis and the trumpet-blowing Vincent Shank.

Marijane Leishman, recent Claudette Colbert double, was first on the program. She responded with "Stormy Weather." Evelyn Pieri, star of last year's Spartan Revelries, was called back for an encore after her inimitable singing of "Did You Mean It".

Everett Lyda, known as "Lyda the Great", presented his usual show of sleight-of-hand, coupled with puns. Pat Matranga brought back visions of the Hawaiian football trip when she sang "Hawaiian Paradise".

BROOKS SINGS

After threatening to attach the show, "Sheriff" Johnny Knight entertained on the piano with Liszt's "Liebstraum". Tap-dancing Harvey Brooks, in the role of Dr. Horatio Brookstein, put on a show when he sang "If you Knew Susie".

Ray Wallace, of "Let 'em Bake" fame, was put into a hypnotic slumber and pounded with a sledge hammer. He finally was carried off the stage after coming out of his "hypnotic" state.

Jim Bailey had the crowd in a laughter with his antics, and he returned with Bob Work and Ben Johnson to put on a mystic spiritualism act.

Wrestlers Meet Utah Friday

Another championship opponent will offer competition to the undefeated Spartan wrestlers this Friday evening when the Washington Square lads play host to the University of Utah, who by virtue of an all-Rocky mountain conference tournament last week, are the best of that area.

Coach Pete Couch will bring a band of veterans bolstered by four championship holders who are led by the intercollegiate title winner of last year, Karl Schleckman, who will meet either John Jones or Sam Della Maggiore in the headliner for the evening.

The other Utah title holders will be in the 145, 165, and 175 pound classes.

Even with the great showing so far this year, the Spartans will go into the fray as underdogs because of the 23-13 defeat suffered at the hands of the boys from Salt Lake in last year's inter-sectional jaunt.

Gerhart To Fight In Junior Lightweight Class; Drexel In Good Condition

Bob McEuen, fiery haired bantamweight from Campbell, today blasted his way to the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate, when he defeated Phil Sheridan, up and coming sophomore, for the varsity position.

McEuen, who has been rather lackadaisical in his training during the early part of the season, has suddenly blossomed forth, and is showing a large improvement over his last year's form.

"He fought on his heart last year, and he's fighting on his ability now. When the ability and the heart get together in Sacramento, he is liable to show the coast bantamweights a few tricks," says Coach Portal in reference to the carrot-topped boxer.

GERHART

Paul Gerhart, who has always entered the ring as a lightweight, hit the scales at 169 and one-half yesterday, and it appears that he will have no trouble in losing the weight necessary to place him in the junior lightweight division.

Gerhart should do especially well in the lighter class, as he has been used to handling the heavier men, and doing a very good job of it.

Bob Harris is to be found in a gym suit once again and will probably be in the pink of condition in time for the coming tournament. Harris will need to be in the top of condition in order to push his way to the top in the 159-pound class, which contains some of the toughest men in the tournament.

159-LB. CLASS

Captain Bob is one of the few men on the Spartan squad who does not have to worry about his weight. He gives every man he fights from five to ten pounds.

SPARTAN RACKET MEN MEET GAELS

The tennis team will attempt to duplicate the win of their basketball brethren this afternoon at 2:30 when they meet the Gael racqueteers at the San Jose Tennis club courts in six singles and three doubles matches.

George "Chuck" Rothholtz, three year man whose eligibility was in doubt, has returned to bolster the hopes of San Jose. Rothholtz is one of the best doubles players ever to play for the local college, stated Coach Ted E. Blesh, who plans to team him with Ed Harper for the first doubles match today.

Top singles man is Forrest Brown, followed by Ed Harper, George Kifer, Harold Kibby, Don Graves, and Don Miner.

Notice

A basketball team, now known as the Hayward Horticulturists, wish to go on record as being the only team on Washington Square which can easily defeat any other aggregation of all-stars. We challenge you! Please reply Co-op Box "H".

Spartan Baseballers Meet Strong Semi-Pro Super Shell Team Friday

Baseball activities at San Jose State college quiet down a bit this week, as Coach Gil Bishop's horseholders meet the Super Shell outfit from Martinez at San Jose in the only contest of the week.

Holding a string of victories over other prominent sand-lot teams in this vicinity, the Super Shell club will come to San Jose this Saturday to take on Coach Bishop's strong aggregation.

With four victories to his credit and only one defeat, Captain Burt Watson will undoubtedly get first call for mound duties. The popular portsider has been on a steady climb in improvement all season, and appears headed for another successful season on the mound. Along with Watson in the box will be Art Carpenter, fast-ball artist, and Marvin Olsen, another portsider, to take care of pitching duties.

First base position offers a problem for Coach Bishop. Walt McPherson, late of football and basketball fame and returning baseball letterman, has recently reported for practice, to match wares with "Pinky" Garcia, new to the varsity this year. Garcia is a sophomore and has turned in some nice performances in early season games. Another sophomore that looks good at first is Don Hickey.

SPARTANS IN RELAYS

Four Track Stars In Long Beach Meet

Four Spartan track and field stars trek to the south Friday morning, when Hal Fosberg, Don Presley, Al Parr, and Harvey Brooks compete for San Jose State in the annual Long Beach Relays.

Delayed by constant rains that have kept the team out of condition, the Washington Square tracksters will be represented by these four athletes—two varsity, one frosh, and one unattached competitor.

Harvey Brooks, former San Jose High sprint star, who temporarily dropped from school, will enter unattached. Hal Fosberg, school record holder in the shot and discus and yearling Don Presley who has been pressing Fosberg in the shot, will compete along with Parr, a broad jumper who recently transferred from a southern California junior college.

COACH "SAD" SAM GIBSON SAD WATSON OUTPITCHES DON STAR

The University of San Francisco baseball coach was indeed a "Sad" Sam Gibson last Saturday. It all came about when Burt Watson, pitching his usual game for the Spartans completely out-shadowed his own Tony Markovitch in every phase of the game.

Markovitch is the boy who holds the Class B Stadium strike-out record, a record he annexed when he fanned seventeen men in a nine inning game. This feat was the climax of a successful Winter League season and because of it, Markovitch was taken good care of by the San Francisco newspapers.

But now comes the upset. It seems that the Dons were all set to beat Coach Bishop's baseballers by a definitely substantial score. But in this they didn't reckon with Watson, our own big league prospect.

Altogether, Watson was responsible for fifteen outs, fanning ten and throwing five men out at first. Not a man got to first on a bye, and only twice in the entire game did a Don get as many as three balls.

Offensively, Watson got two hits out of four trips to the plate, driving Pinky Garcia home each time to score two runs out of five.

All in all, Watson outpointed the highly touted city hurler in every inning of the game.

Sad indeed was Coach "Sad" Sam Gibson.

Notice

Der Deutsche Verein will not meet tonight. The next meeting will be held on March 10, Wednesday.

DECORATIONS

For decorations, kites will predominate, hanging from the ceiling, the walls, and over the doorways. The lighting of the pavilion will be in harmony with the spring theme, and colored spotlights will flash on the dancing couples.

As has been the custom at the night student body dances, no stags will be allowed at the dance. Admission will be by the usual student body card, and each student can bring one outsider at a charge of 25 cents.

Tony Pisano And Tara In Condition

Spartan Boxers Diligently
Training For Tournament

His real fighting weight is in the 147-pound class, but he is fighting in the heavier division for the benefit of the team.

Paul Tara and Tony Pisano are the two Spartan boxers who take their boxing more seriously than any of the boys on the team. Tara and Pisano are to be found in the gym working practically the whole afternoon from two o'clock on each day. A sore thumb, which has been bothering Tara, is apparently on the road to recovery.

ROAD WORK

Karl Drexel, who won the 147-pound crown last Wednesday in a return match with Jimmy Kincaid, has been seen out doing roadwork in the smaller hours of every morning in an effort to keep his condition on par with the rest of the team. During the PAA tournament, Drexel was rated by Al Sandell, who has seen a lot of amateurs come and go, as the best prospect in the tournament.

Tower, and Ruth MacQuarrie in featured roles.

MOTHER ENTERTAINS

Miss McBurney as the mother of the noble, played by Bill Gilson, invites the singer for a sojourn at her home, and it is in this way that she convinces the girl that the life of the nobility would be boring and distasteful to her. This leaves the way clear for the noble to marry a woman of his own class, played by June Chestnut.

Good comic character roles will be filled by Miss Holloway as the ambitious cockney mother of the singer, and by Miss MacQuarrie as the typical haughty and severe English gentlewoman.

FREE ADMITTANCE

Admittance to the play will be free on all three evenings. No ticket reservations will be made, and no standing in line will be necessary on the nights of performance. Those who attend the performances are advised to come early by Mr. Gillis in order to secure the best seats.

Peter Mingrone will be stage technician, and the technical staff will be composed of Dramatics students not in the cast.

PEGASIANS AFTER PRIZE

CONTEST OPEN TO ALL S. J. STATE
STUDENTS' SAYS F. WILSON

If members of Pegasus, the honorary literary society, don't win all the prizes in the essay contest sponsored by the college Peace council it won't be their fault, for practically every Pegasian, and there are twenty of them, have entered essays in the competition.

"This contest is open to all State students and not just Pegasians," pleads Frank Wilson, president of the Peace council. "We're giving away real money, positively, and we don't want to have a monopoly if we can help it."

The subject of the essay is "The Preservation of Peace" and should be between 500 and 600 words, typewritten. The essays will be judged on the type of material and logical presentation.

Prizes will be five dollars for first prize, three dollars for the second best essay, and one dollar for third prize.

March 5 is the last day for essays to be entered in the competition. They should be turned in at the Information office.

ART CLUB TO SELL MILK AND DOUGHNUTS TODAY

Doughnuts and milk for hungry art students will be on sale today from two to four o'clock in the art department's club room—No. A4, just off Room 1.

The price will be ten cents, and Grace Petitioner will be in charge of the sale. Everyone, whether an art student or not, is invited to partake of the repast.

"We are not going to let the art department starve," cries Maryan Rucker, president of the Smock and Tam, which is sponsoring the sale. "Our goal is a healthy and hearty bunch of art classes!"

Officers Elected To Head Artists

Sal Merendino Chosen New
Prexy; Jarvis Resigns

Following the resignation of Elizabeth Jarvis as president of the Art Council, new officers were elected yesterday in the club room.

Sal Merendino as elected president, Bud Watson, vice-president, and Marion Kyle, secretary-treasurer. The presidents of the various art organizations are acting as representatives on the Council, which is the coordinating unit for the art department as a whole.

Maryan Rucker is representative for Smock and Tam, Elizabeth Jarvis for Sigma Tau, and Mickey Slingsluff for the Artisans.

The Council is now at work sanding and re-waxing the floor of the club room, which is room four in the Art building. For the present, the Egyptian murals, which were used at the Artists' Ball last month are to be hung on the club room walls.

Sheller, Green Heard In Sixth Campus Sing Yesterday Morning

With Audrey Sheller and Jack Green highlighting the program, the sixth Campus Sing was held yesterday at 11 in the Little Theater.

Miss Sheller, marimba artist, was heard in three numbers, and Green concluded the sing with several piano selections.

As is the custom, the words to popular songs were flashed on a screen. Proving to be the most successful was the novelty song, "The Martins and the Coys".

Miss Berta Gray, publications assistant, led the singing. Ella Van Beek was general chairman of the affair, and was assisted by Pat Tandrow and Evelyn Moeller.

Those wishing to purchase tickets may still get them from choir members who will sell them tomorrow in the quad and in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium. All seats will be reserved.

Admission to the concert, which will begin at 8:20 p.m., is thirty-five cents.

PROGRAM

The program for the evening is as follows:

"Sing ye to the Lord" by J. S. Bach; "Come Soothing Death" by Bach; "Song of Praise" by Bach; "Nunc Dimittis" by A. Gretchaninof; "Salvation is Created" by Tchnesnokoff.

"Song of Mary" by C. Fischer; "The Morning Star" by G. Schuman; "Beautiful Savior" by F. Melius Christianson; "Cherubim Song" by Glinka; "Lost in the Night" by F. M. Christianson; and "Motet for Advent" by G. Schreck completes the program.

LIBRARY FACULTY ATTENDS MEET IN OAKLAND

Four members of the library staff, Miss Joyce Backus, Miss Jeanette Van der Ploeg, Miss Lucy Bailey, and Miss Helen Bullock represented San Jose State college at a meeting Saturday of the northern section of the school Library Association in Oakland.

Several of the library majors, members of the Bibliophiles, also accompanied the group to the meeting, which was held in the Professional Library of the city school department.

After the meeting, the group was conducted through the new Alameda county library, which is located in the county courthouse building overlooking Lake Merritt.

Nine Students Sign For Nature School

San Jose State college students registered for the Death Valley session of the West Coast School of Nature Study include Ralph Smith, Sallie Smith, James Taylor, Gail Curry, Ruth MacQuarrie, Jeanne Staffebach, Clara Belle Staffebach, Vecelia Cupich, and W. H. Craft.

Faculty members registered to date are Miss Lee Suave, Miss Gladys Nevenzel, and Miss Mabel Crumby.

Plans For All-School Cheap Skate Party Made By Kappa Phi Group

Affair To Be Held Monday Night At Auditorium Roller
Rink From 7:30 To 10; Tickets Sell For 39 Cents

Phil Harris

Phil Harris, one of America's favorite dance maestros, who brings his famous 17-piece orchestra—including glamorous Judy Janis—to the Civic auditorium dance bowl Friday night.

PHIL HARRIS' ORCHESTRA PLAYS FRIDAY NIGHT AT AUDITORIUM

Phil Harris and his famous 17-piece orchestra—known to millions with Jack Benny on the Jello Hour—appears Friday night in the Civic auditorium dance bowl.

When "Buck Benny Rides Again" comes on the air, maestro Harris changes from band leader to actor, the charming qualities of his vibrant voice carrying him through hilarious "meller-drammer".

Phil is here direct from Hollywood where he recently completed another picture, being remembered by movie fans for "Melody Cruise". "So This is Paris", "Happy as a Lark", and "Crazy As a Loon".

Music will be heard from 9 to 1 o'clock, reservations being available at the Paramount Amusement Bureau, Rooms 315-18, Twohy Building.

An all-school skating party for men and women students will be sponsored by the Kappa Phi Club at the Auditorium Roller Rink, March 8 from 7:30 until 10.

Selecting the novel title of "Cheap Skate", an evening of skating will be presented for the sum of 39 cents. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Kappa Phi Club or in the Publications office from Miss Berta Gray, club sponsor.

Martha Rogers is chairman for the party, and urges campus organizations to attend in groups or individually. As many organizations have planned skating parties recently and have found it necessary to call them off, it is hoped that they will attend the "Cheap Skate", Miss Rogers stated. The auditorium has been obtained for the evening, so only State students and their guests will be present.

Among the Kappa Phi members assisting Miss Rogers with plans for the "Cheap Skate" are Dorothy Porter, tickets; Irene Bennett and Ella Van Beek, door prizes.

judges of the contest. Songs that are selected as superior by the judges will be sung before the freshmen and senior orientation. Student judgement will decide the winner. That person will merit a five-dollar award.

According to Bob Free, if no songs of quality are turned in by Friday, no prize will be awarded.

Dr. DeVoss Denies COLLEGE DAYS Happiest Of Life

That college days are the happiest days, or that childhood is the gayest and most carefree period in life is ridiculed by Dr. James DeVoss, member of the Psychology department and dean of the upper division.

To prove his stand, Dr. DeVoss took the lives of college students and professors and compared them. He pointed out the fact that students must pay to take classes, while the professors are paid for teaching them.

"I really have much more fun than students do," concluded the professor. "I thoroughly enjoy myself during lectures as I gaze at the smiling, upturned youthful faces of the students. But the students are not so well off—for the whole hour they have to look at me!"
